ABOUT ME

I am a pianist based in Iceland since November 2025, working as a classical pianist and also teach Piano in Neskaupstaður (Iceland).

My repertoire centers on the Romantic tradition, with a particular affinity for works by Rachmaninoff, Chopin, Liszt, Schumann and Brahms.

Alongside my performing activity, I teach piano to a diverse range of students, combining artistic excellence with a thoughtful and individualized approach.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

I am a pianist with an international performance background, having appeared in concerts across Europe and the United States.

In Portugal, my work has been featured in live broadcasts on national radio, including RTP-Antena 2, reflecting my active engagement within the classical music scene and recognition as a performing artist.

I pursued my studies in the United States at Arizona State University in Phoenix, where I worked under the guidance of Caio Pagano, a distinguished pianist and professor.

During this time, I was awarded a Special Talent Scholarship, recognizing both my artistic potential and dedication to my development as a musician.

These experiences continue to influence my work as both a performer and Piano teacher.
